

14 – 15 March 2019

Nelson Mandela University, Port Elizabeth

Dear Music Educator

For the first time in 40 years, the SASMT National Conference will be hosted in Port Elizabeth, the Friendly City. This is an historic event and of great significance to all music lovers in the Eastern Cape Region.

The conference will be taking place from 14 to 16 March and will be guided by the general theme 'Let the Music Speak...'

Apart from musical performances, 'hands on' choral and orchestra workshops will be offered. The keynote speaker will, most fittingly be Dr Richard Cock, a proud son of the Eastern Cape. Expect presentations and panel discussions on relevant topics such as Music Technology, Decolonisation and the effective incorporation of contemporary music into the school curriculum.

The Committee furthermore wishes to offer a platform to as many of our bright young music stars as possible, making the involvement of the spectacular school orchestras for which the Eastern Cape has come to be known, a top priority.

We are very proud to welcome everyone to our beautiful city. While you are making your travel arrangement, consider staying a day or two longer, to soak up the sights and sounds as of the Eastern Cape. Port Elizabeth boasts three Blue Flag beaches, where you can relax and enjoy the sun and surf. Also visit one of the numerous malaria-free game reserves in the area, with Addo Elephant National Park being just 35km from PE, and don't forget to visit one of the numerous restaurants on the beachfront, where you can enjoy a scrumptious meal while watching the dolphins swim by.
