

South African Society of Music Teachers

Dear Music Teacher

The SASMT PE Centre would like to thank all the hard-working teachers and the participants for entering this year's Into the Mix Contemporary and Jazz Music Competition.

This competition created the opportunity for primary and high school performers of contemporary and jazz music to enter in one of six sections (based on their music grade and musical style).

We are pleased to announce the following 2021 SASMT Into the Mix Contemporary and Jazz Music Competition winners:

Section A and D (Music Grades 1-3):

Third place: Karu Rademeyer (Vocals; Private Student; Section A)

Second place: Jordan Barr (Drum Kit; DDrums Drumming Academy; Section A)

First place: Myla Williams (Vocals; Two Tone Music; Section D)

Section B and E (Music Grades 4-6):

Third place (shared): Nathan van der Walt (Drum Kit; DDrums Drumming Academy; Section B) and Jasmin Esau (Vocals; Collegiate Girls' High School; Section B)

Second place: Jonathan van der Walt (Drum Kit; DDrums Drumming Academy; Section B)

First place: Ethan Forlee (Drum Kit; DDrums Drumming Academy; Section B)

Section C and F (Music Grades 7 and up):

Third place: Hannah Nel (Vocals; Collegiate Girls' High School; Section C)

Second place: Amy Mulock-Hower (Vocals; Pearson High School; Section C)

First place: Kálene Botha (Vocals; Pearson High School; Section C)

Kind regards,

Liska Mey

SASMT Chairman: Port Elizabeth Centre