

NATIONAL SASMT PRETORIA ENSEMBLE COMPETITION 2021

In collaboration with Eduplex School & the Ear Institute

The National SASMT Pretoria Ensemble Competition is aimed at developing young musicians through collaborative participation and by encouraging the enjoyment of performing with others. Another goal is to foster an understanding, love and appreciation for ensemble music as well as the performance thereof among young musicians. With this objective in mind, this competition is open for musicians who are not yet professional soloists in their own right.

1. PARTICIPATION

1. The age categories of the competition are open to any school going learners up to, and including, the age of 19 on 1 August 2021.
2. The Open category is for ensembles with at least one musician over the age of 19.
3. Musicians residing in South Africa are eligible for participation.

2. PRE-SELECTION

1. A video-clip of one of the works to be performed is required for pre-selection and has to accompany the entry.

2. The musicians performing in the video-clip have to be the participants who will be participating at the competition.
3. Clips can be recorded on cellphones and sent via WhatsApp or SMS to 082 774 3027, or via e-mail to gisela@scriba.co.za
4. Clips do not have to be a professional recording.
5. A maximum of 60 ensembles will be selected for participation in the competition.
6. Ensembles qualifying for the competition will be notified via e-mail not later than 15 July 2021.

3.COMPETITION ROUNDS

1. Adjudication will take place over two rounds.
2. All selected entrants will compete in Round 1.
3. Three finalists will be announced at the end of each age category.
4. Two finalists will be announced at the end of the open category.
5. The finalists will compete in Round 2, which takes place in the form of a Gala Concert.
6. The prize winners will be announced at the end of the Gala Concert.

4.RULES AND REGULATIONS

1. No adults are allowed in any ensemble except for the open category.
2. No professional soloists are allowed to take part, as this competition is aimed at developing young musicians.
3. All ensembles have to perform without a conductor.
4. No conducting whatsoever from the audience or backstage will be allowed. Any attempts to do so will lead to disqualification.
5. The average age of all the participants in an ensemble as on 1 August 2021 will determine the age category.
6. Ensembles can include a minimum of two, and a maximum of 16 players.
7. Any combination of instruments may be used, with the exclusion of electronic instruments.
8. Drum kits may be used as part of an ensemble.
9. Duos consisting of one instrument and piano may enter if both parts play a similar role with appropriate musical difficulty.
10. The focus of the competition is on ensemble playing and not to show case soloists. Adjudicators have the right not to choose such combinations if the criteria are not met.
11. No electronic sound amplification is permitted.
12. The pianist is included in the calculation of the number of players.
13. If required, two pianos will be available on stage.
14. The combination of instruments has to stay the same throughout the programme in both rounds.
15. In four-hand, six-hand and eight-hand piano ensembles, the players may change positions.
16. Own music stands have to be supplied.
17. Three sets of ring-bound copies of the sheet music should be made available for the adjudicators. These copies should be handed in 30 minutes before the start of each category at reception.

18. Arrangements and newly composed works may be performed, provided that a score is presented.
19. Deviations from the scores have to be clearly marked in the adjudicator's copies.
20. Where applicable, original publications of the sheet music should be present during the competition and made available if requested.
21. If scores have been downloaded, proof of purchase must be affixed to the copies. If scores are open source, a letter from the teacher stating the source of the material will suffice.
22. All contestants have to report backstage 20 minutes before their allocated competition times.
