

SASMT CONFERENCE 2018

5 to 7 April, in Durban

THE PASSION OF MUSIC - CELEBRATING DIVERSITY

Conference Fees: Members R550 Non-members R600

Fees include Thursday supper and the Gala Concert, Friday lunch, all teas, but exclude the Centenary Dinner on Friday night.

Student and daily fees will be available early next year.

Provisional Programme

Thursday 5 April (UKZN)

- 08h30 Council meeting
- 13h30 AGM
- 17h00 Conference registration at Howard College Theatre
- 17h30 Conference Session: Patricia Opondo
- 18h30 Finger supper at Howard College Theatre
- 19h30 Gala Concert arranged by Andrew Warburton

Friday 6 April (Durban Jewish Centre)

- 08h00 AGM
- 11h00 Conference sessions
- 17h30 Break
- 19h00 Centenary Gala Dinner

Saturday 7 April (Durban Jewish Centre)

- 09h00 Conference sessions
- 13h45 Post-conference Council meeting

List of Speakers:

1. Marijke de Bruin: "Adaptive teaching methodology in response to a new generation of musicians and learners."
2. Chatradari Devroop: "21st Century Music Education in contemporary South Africa."
3. Richard Haslop: Topic to be finalised
4. Liezl-Marét Jacobs: "Creating an excellent and inspiring environment for the committed music student" and "South African composers' piano music."
5. Patricia Opondo: "Appreciating the diversity of African music."
6. Ronél Perks: "The joy of singing."
7. Vanessa Tait-Jones: "Vocal care & hygiene for the professional voice user."
8. John Walton: "Outreach and education projects conducted by the KZNPO."
9. Andrew Warburton: "The Joy of chamber music with piano; an investigation into a relatively unknown repertoire."
10. Sue van Blerk: "Business Ethics for the Music Teacher."
11. Priscilla Crundwell: "A New Passion Discovered: The Joy of Writing"